

Miles4Hips is a patient-driven collaborative between individuals affected by hip dysplasia and the International Hip Dysplasia Institute. We are dedicated to raising hip dysplasia awareness, supporting the efforts of the International Hip Dysplasia Institute (IHDI), providing information and resources for the hip dysplasia community, and promoting movement for healthy hips and minds for all people.

We are recruiting a Junior Board Member to serve on our team and support our efforts. This is a voluntary position and requires a 6-month commitment (January 1, 2021-June 30, 2021).

Roles and responsibilities will include:

- Participating in monthly board meetings and representing the voice of adolescents and young adults experiencing hip dysplasia.
- Developing content for at least one Miles4Hips social media post per month (6 total)
- Developing quarterly newsletter to share updates from Miles4Hips Board, medical advisor, and IHDI (2 total)

Skills/Requirements:

- At least 18 years old (if younger than 18, will require parent or guardian consent).
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Strong writing and skills.
- Familiarity with developing newsletters or willingness to learn.
